Courtney the CAPC and FYSCP coordinator shared the FYSCP 2021-2024 FYSCP plan was submitted and approved. If any members have questions to please contact her. In addition Courtney shared that the plan was focusing on training of agencies that may come in contact with any foster youth. Currently the FYSCP can offer a four-hour Trauma Informed Care training to any staff or agency that may work with or come in contact with a foster youth. Two trainings had been contact at that time and she was in the process of coordinating an additional training for Mono County Public Health. Molly DesBaillets asked if this was something that could be utilized for child care providers and Courtney said she will follow up with Molly. Michelle Raust shared that in regards to resources family updates we have a good group of families and there is no wait for placement. They are continuing with a quarterly gathering, by zoom, to help keep the resources families connected. Molly shared that if there are child 0-5 that are being fostered, First 5 can serve both the resource family and the biological parents with home visiting. Kelly Conboy shared that IAMCA has the Bridge Program that can help pay for child care of the foster children. (Information)

12. CAPC Program and Member Updates: CAPC members and staff have the option to share information related to the mission of the CAPC. (Informational)

DonnaLisa Knowles, Parent and Community Member: No Updates.

Jazmin Barkley, Mono County Probation: Just started a council that meet-to-meet state mandates and be creative in what programs and services that they can provide our youth and at-risk youth in our community. Within that council they are currently working on create a program or system here that will help the youth that would have been sent to the division of juvenal justice. They also have an after school program starting up with Mammoth Unified School District. It is an after school program that will have activities for youth from arts to STEAM in an effort to help they stay busy and stay out of the system.

Michelle Raust, Mono County Department of Social Services: Some of the Social Services Staff went through a Strengthening Families Training with Courtney though the FYSPC program. They are in the middle of trying to get a training going to help filling the lack of parenting training or support programs. The target audience for this training is Resources Families and families at risk. The Children's System of Care (CSCO) group continues to meet and works with the Interagency leadership Team (ILT). They are hoping to start an Interagency Release of Information. They are also working on mapping out all of the commissions, meetings, councils and groups that currently meeting around working with children, ask risk youth, and child welfare to identify any kind of overlap.

Molly DesBaillets, First 5 Mono: First 5 was able to move forward with the health and Safety Fairs. Finishing up year ends reporting.

Barbara Keller, CASA and Wild Iris: Shared that she works with Court Appointed Special Advocate (CASA) and they work with kids that have been placed in foster care due to abuse and neglect. They just wrapped up their Resiliency Symposium with over 100 attendees state wide. Currently the works is a training for more CASAs and in the fall they are looking to do a CASA Super Hero Run. The run will be in Inyo and Mono location is yet to be determined.

Kelly Conboy, IMACA CCC: Kelly shared that IMACA CCC works with child care providers and people that want to become child care providers. Additional they have a Family, Friend or Neighbor program that is approved though Gaudian formally known as Trust Line to help pay for part of a family's child care. They have also extend the enrolment and payment process for essential works from now until June of 2022.

Matias Bernal, Wild Iris: Matias is not a member of the CAPC at this time but we allowed him the opportunity to share with the group as his work impacts the Mono County's Child Abuse Prevention Efforts. Matias shared that he is the new director of Wild Iris. He is excited for the new work.
